OSALIN

Lavinia Randall Award

You have had an amazing journey at St Joseph's.

Danylo and his family fled to Buckinghamshire from their native Kyiv in Ukraine in April 2022.

Despite the challenges you face, leaving everything familiar to yourself you have had some wonderful achievements and experiences - shown compassion and care for others.

An example of this is - Danny spent all day playing chess with attendees at WhizzWhizzFest, a children's literature and creativity festival inspired by Roald Dahl. Through his chess playing, Daniel raised £600 to fund a trip to the Roald Dahl Museum for Ukrainian children living in Buckinghamshire.

24th February visited the House of Lords – mark 3rd anniversary of the invasion of his country. "A young boy of 11 but also as a Ukrainian who could feel the warmth and support extended to his community on such an important day." Danylo's mum.

Greater Depth scores in Reading and Maths and pass 11+ exam.
