The Scarecrow's Wedding – Julia Donaldson

Did you love The Gruffalo? Or Stick Man? Then you will love this story by Julia Donaldson too! The Scarecrow's Wedding is a fabulous love story, with drama, humour, originality - and a happy ending! Two scarecrows, Betty O'Barley and Harry O'Hay, are planning the perfect wedding. But wicked scarecrow, Reginald Rake, has other ideas and almost ruins their special day. Harry must become a hero before he and Betty can have the wedding of their dreams.

On the Way Home – Jill Murphy

Another fantastic author here who has written many books you probably already know such as 'Peace at Last' or 'Whatever Next!'.

Claire has hurt her knee, so she sets off home to tell her mum all about it. On the way she meets her friends and tells them how the fall happened. But just how did it happen . . .? Was she dropped by a wolf, a slithering snake, an enormous dragon or a hairy gorilla?! Give it a read to find out!

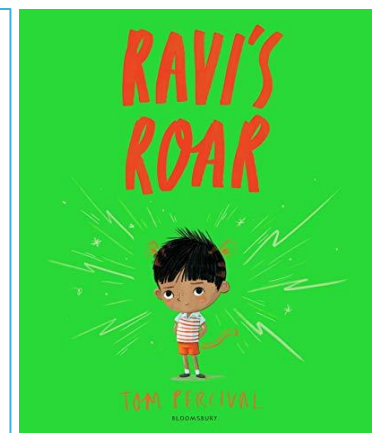

Ravi's Roar – Tom Percival

Most of the time, Ravi can control his temper but one day, he lets out the tiger within ... Being a tiger is great fun at first – tigers can do ANYTHING they want! But who wants to play with a growling, roaring, noisy, wild tiger who won't share or play nicely? Ravi is about to discover something very important about expressing his feelings and making amends.

A great book to read with your family!

All Are Welcome – Alexandra Penfold

Follow a group of children through a day in their school, where everyone is welcome. A school where children in patkas, hijabs, baseball caps and yarmulkes play side by side. A school where students grow and learn from each other's traditions. A school where diversity is a strength.
